AWARENESS RIDE PLANNED FOR THURSDAY

ROBINS AIR FORCE BASE, Ga. – Motorcyclists throughout the Warner Robins area will display a sense of unity and camaraderie during the Motorcycle Awareness ride planned Thursday.

The ride is designed to coincide with the recent launch of the “See Me, Save Me campaign” and to bring to a close the 101 Critical Days of Summer.

This awareness ride is scheduled on a course through parts of Robins AFB and some of the community’s thoroughfares.

Participants with base access who want to join in the motorcycle awareness ride need to arrive at the motorcycle safety range in the PAVE PAWS parking lot at 9:30 a.m.

The awareness ride will begin with a safety briefing and closes with a lunchtime cookout at the Museum of Aviation.

For more information on how to join in on this awareness ride call the 78th Air Base Wing Safety Office at 926-6271.
