

Welcome to Robins AFB, Georgia Airman & Family Readiness Center

Congratulations on your assignment to Robins AFB and Middle Georgia. The Airman & Family Readiness Center (A&FRC) is a vital part of your transition and move here. We are looking forward to your arrival and stand ready to assist you in any way we can. I am sure your sponsor has been in touch with you and is helping you prepare for your move.

I want to take this opportunity to remind you of the services that are available to you at your losing installation through the A&FRC and encourage you to contact them at your earliest convenience. They will assist you and your family in preparing for your move to Robins AFB. Below are some of the services

Welcome to Robins AFB Resources

Here are some resources that will help you get a feel for this assignment. Please don't hesitate to reach out to your sponsor or your base Relocation Assistance Program for information.

During the current COVID-related situation, please keep an eye on the base website for updated information.

OTHER SUPPORTS:

- More Resources: Please review the attached "JB Andrews Plan My Move Resources" list to assist you with your relocation needs. Includes website to create timeline and checklists for moving; a site with base information for all bases worldwide, and more.
- Base Information: Search for JB Andrews on the Military Installations website (<https://installations.militaryonesource.mil/>.) See the attachment "How to Use Military Installations Site" for instructions.
- School Liaison: If you are moving with school-aged children, please feel free to reach out to the School Liaison at your base by contacting the Airman & Family Readiness Center/Military & Family Support Center or Child and Youth Programs. If you're having trouble reaching your local School Liaison (SLO), you can reach out to our SLO Sunny Babauta Lee at Comm: 301-981-9211, DSN: 858-9211, or email sunny.lee.5@us.af.mil.
- Childcare for PCS: The Air Force Aid Society provides vouchers for up to 20 hours of free child care per child for Air Force families with PCS orders, at both their losing and gaining bases. Contact your Airman & Family Readiness Center/Military & Family Support Center to see if this is available at your base.
- EFMP: If you have a family member who is already enrolled in the Exceptional Family Member Program, contact your local EFMP Family Support team at the Airman & Family Readiness Center/Military & Family Support Center to sign up for a short one-on-one needs assessment appointment. If you're having trouble reaching someone at your base, please call us at 301-981-7087 to set up a short one-on-one appointment or email briana.trujillo.1@us.af.mil or adreinne.barnett@us.af.mil.
- Financial Success: If you'd like to get your finances in shape for your move, contact Heather Walrath, our Accredited Financial Counselor, who can tell you about the services available free of charge to you. Cost of living in the National Capital Region is quite high, which makes preparing financially even more important. Pfc.andrews.usaf@zeiders.com, phone: 240-222-2604
