

SPACE AVAILABLE TRAVEL IMMIGRATION AND BORDER CLEARANCE REQUIREMENTS

Federal Aviation Administration
Transportation Security Administration
U.S. Department of State

Military personnel stationed in Europe who travel to locations outside Europe do not require a passport to return to duty, but do require an ID card (Common Access Card), and leave orders.

Military personnel stationed in locations outside Europe and traveling to Europe require ID card (Common Access Card), tourist passport, and leave orders.

Note: IAW DOD 4500.54-G and DOD 1000.21-R you cannot use your Government issued "No-Fee" passport for leisure travel unless stationed overseas or on official travel orders.

For more information about border clearance requirements visit <https://www.fcg.pentagon.mil>. You will find information based on bilateral arrangements between U.S. and foreign government officials. This website provides information for personal travel to foreign countries as well as general information on foreign locations.

Current as of January 14, 2020